Summary: Katie Morris is Rhydian's younger sister. They are both wolfbloods in the UK foster system. After getting kicked out of their last foster placement they get sent to Stoney-Bridge. It's there that they meet Madeline Smith. Note The story starts before lone wolf *I don't own Wolfblood, credit goes to Debbie Moon*

1. Chapter 1

"Rhydian, Katie, come on you don't want to be late for your first day at school," Mrs. Vaughn said. Mrs. Vaughn is our new foster mother.

Rhydian and Katie have been in foster care since they were two, their parents had left them in the middle of the forest.

Katie made her way downstairs, she grabbed her school bag and a slice of toast. Her brother Rhydian joined her and they left the house.

Once Katie and Rhydian arrived at school, they went to the office.

"Hello. How can I help you" the lady in the office asked.

"It's our first day here. We're Katie and Rhydian Morris" Katie said.

"Of course." the lady said. "Mr. Jeffries, the new students have arrived"

Mr. Jeffries took Katie and Rhydian to the form room, where he went over the school rules and asked them to sign some paperwork. After that, the bell went and students walked into the classroom. They all looked at Katie and Rhydian as they walked past. Katie noticed that one of the students didn't look at them, instead, she walked over to her seat.

"Everyone, we have two new students joining us today. Their names are Rhydian and Katie Morris." Mr. Jeffries said. "I'm guessing that they are from Wales"

"No" Rhydian answered.

"You both smell like my parents," someone said. Katie turned around and saw that it was the same girl who had ignored them when she walked in. The girl had long brown hair and hazel eyes.

"Ok, settle down. Find a seat, Maddy" Mr. Jeffries said.

It was lunch time and Katie and Rhydian sat on their own table. Rhydian was sketching a wolf and Katie was looking at a magazine when three girls came over. Katie recognized them as Kara, Katerina and Kay.

"Hi Rhydian," Kay said. Rhydian was busy sketching and didn't really look up.

"Hi," Rhydian answered.

"Since you are new here you probably want some information about the school. We are the best people to ask, we know everything" Kara said.

"That weird girl who is sitting at the table in the corner. Who is she?" Rhydian asked.

"Oh, thats Maddy Smith. She lives in one of the country houses. The people that live there don't like questions and there all crazy" Kara said. "but why are we talking about them, let's talk about you... me and us"

"We found this model competition. We're all going to enter and we think that you two should as well" Kay said.

"Yeah, you just need a photo page," Katrina said.

"She means a portfolio," Kay said. Rhydian grabbed his sketchbook and left the table. Katie looked at the three girls and smiled at them. She grabbed her magazine and left the canteen.

Katie sighed. She wished that the floor could just swallow her up and then she wouldn't have to put up with this mess, but Katie knew that her brother needed her. Once Katie arrived her locker which was next to Rhydian, she opened it and found a note.

"Katie,

Call me

Robbie"

On the back was a number. She looked around her trying to find out who this boy was but before she could ask anyone, Rhydian came over and opened his locker. Katie put the note in her pocket.

"Is that your lunch?" someone said. Rhydian grabbed the leak and throw it at the boys head. They bout turned around. It was Jimi from their form class.

"Are you looking for a fight?" Jimi said as he walked back over to where the two siblings were standing. Katie watched as her brother grabbed Jimi and knocked him back, causing Jimi to fall to the ground.

"Rhydian, stop it," Katie said but Rhydian wouldn't listen until the girl from the form room came over.

Rhydian pulled back and looked at Katie. He was losing control of his wolf self, Rhydian had dark veins on his hands and neck.

"Come on," Maddy said as she dragged Rhydian into a room. Katie followed and closed the door behind her. Maddy turned around.

"What are you doing here?" Maddy asked.

"Trying to help my brother, before he does something that he will regret," Katie said.

"Rhydian's your brother," Maddy asked.

"My twin brother," Katie said. Maddy turned her attention back to Rhydian.

"Its ok, just breath" Maddy said.

"Rhydian, control it," Katie said, but it was too late. Rhydian was now in wolf form. He started to run around the room, destroying the laptops and lights.

Maddy and Katie crouched down on the floor and they both changed the eyes to yellow. Katie had black veins on her hand as well. When Rhydian changed back to his human form, Maddy stood up and looked at the siblings.

"You two need to leave. You don't belong her" Maddy said.

"It's not our fault that we moved her" Katie said. "I don't know what you have against us. I don't know you"

The door to the room opened. Katie and Rhydian took this as their cue to leave.

It was just before sunset and Katie was in her room, Rhydian was nowhere to be seen. Mrs. Vaughn knocked on the door.

"Katie, do you know were Rhydian is?" Mrs. Vaughn asked.

"I think so. I will go and look for him" Katie said.

"Ok, stay safe," Mrs. Vaughn said.

Katie left the house and went into the woods, she followed Rhydian's scent and found him sitting on a log.

"Hi," Katie said. "Are you planning on running away without me?"

"I never said that I was running away," Rhydian said.

"Rhydian, Katie" someone called. The siblings turned around and saw Maddy Smith coming over to them.

"We were just about to leave," Rhydian said.

"I know about the Vaughn's. I know that you two are alone. I can help you" Maddy said.

"So you've changed your mind, this morning you wanted us gone," Katie said.

"We've had help. Social workers, support groups and nothing worked" Rhydian said.

"No, I mean that we can really help. You need to learn how to control your wolf self before you hurt someone" Maddy said.

Rhydian took off running.

"Rhydian come back" Katie shouted after him. Maddy and Katie followed him. Katie laughed as she ran through the forest. It felt good to be free. The three of them continued to run until Maddy saw the opportunity to knock Rhydian over. The two of them throw leaves at each other.

"Very funny," Katie said. "I thought that boys were supposed to be stronger than girls. I guess not."

Katie looked around her and noticed they had run into a group of students.

"Sorry, were late," Maddy said. "Seen any badgers yet?"

"No, you three have scared them all off. Sorry everyone, we will have to do this another time" The teacher said and the group left. Only two of them stayed behind.

"Nice going Mads, we almost had three new members"

"I had to do something important," Maddy said.

"What, more important than the photography club"

"Rhydian and Katie are important," Maddy said. "You see the thing is were related, distant cousins. You two don't have to like them, but they are part of my life now."

"Ok. Welcome to Stoney-bridge. My name is Tom" Tom said.

"Oh, I'm Shannon," Shannon said.

"Well, I don't know about you, but I'm frozen" Tom said.

"Yeah, let's go," Shannon said.

We left the woods and ended up in the local cafe. We all made a toast to the photography club and then Kay, Kara and Katrina walked in.

"Are Katie and Rhydian joining the photography club?" Katerina asked.

"No" Rhydian answered.

"I don't think so," I said.

"Well, we have a favor to ask. There is this model competition running and we need our photos taken, It would cost far too much to get them done professionally. If you take our photos for us then we will join your club." Kara said.

Rhydian got up and walked out, Katie followed.

"Rhydian, Katie. Wait" Maddy called.

"We never said that we were staying," Rhydian said as we made our way to the edge of the woods. Maddy turned her head in the direction of the cafe where the "three Ks" were sitting. "That's a pity, Rhydian seems to have a fan club"

"If that doesn't scare you off, then nothing will," Maddy said. The three of us walked through the woods until we came to a river with large rocks in the center.

"So if you're not from Wales, then how did you get named Rhydian?" Maddy asked.

"My mum was Welsh" Rhydian answered.

"What about Katie," Maddy asked.

"I don't know how I got my name" Katie said.

"How long have you been in foster care?" Maddy asked.

"Since the age of two," Katie said.

"What did you do for the full moon last night?" Maddy asked.

"We couldn't stay in our bedroom. Katie and I climbed out my bedroom window and went into the woods" Rhydian said.

"Was it your first time?" Maddy asked.

"It was my first transformation but Rhydian's second," Katie said.

"So it must have been your paw prints that Shannon found" Maddy guessed.

"What about you, full moons must be epic out here," Rhydian asked.

"I haven't started transforming yet," Maddy said.

"So we know more about this than you do?" Rhydian asked.

"Yeah, you're the expert. You lost it with Jimi in front of half the school" Maddy said to Rhydian.

"I'm sorry. I only thought that werewolves changed on the full moon" Rhydian said.

"We feel the urge to change when we feel threatened too. Learn to control it and you can change whenever you want to" Maddy said.

"How do you know so much?" Katie asked.

"My parents tell me lots of things about our kind," Maddy said.

"Wow, you have parents like us," Katie said.

"Yeah. We call ourselves Wolfblood's, were not monsters" Maddy said.

"But I don't remember getting bitten," Rhydian said. Maddy laughed at this.

"Bitten. You don't get bitten. We are born this way" Maddy said. "You still have a lot to learn"

"Well teach us then, smelly girl," Rhydian said. Maddy cringed at the nickname.

"Look around you. Everything that makes you different from humans, sight, smell and speed. They are completely normal for a Wolfblood" Maddy said.

Katie and Rhydian looked around them, taking in the beautiful sights of the woods.

"So, if we choose to stay around, just for a little while. What will that do for us?" Rhydian asked.

"Well, you will have a pack, at last, people to teach you," Maddy said.

"Oh no. No rules or lectures. You can keep you family to yourself. Katie and I will do things our own way." Rhydian said.

"A twosome of teenage Wolfblood's. What will happen next time one of you loses control of your wolf self?" Maddy asked.

"That will be an interesting day," Rhydian said.

"Very interesting" Katie added. Rhydian hugged Katie.

2. Chapter 2

The next day, Katie woke up, got dressed and left for school. Katie hated most of the subjects in school apart from art since she had a passion for drawing.

Katie walked through the school corridor, most of the students were looking at a printed out photograph. The photo didn't really concern

Katie until she took a closer look at it. In the corner of the picture, there was a black shadow with yellow eyes, it was another Wolfblood.

Katie went to her locker and got her history book and then she made her way to the classroom. History was boring and Katie spent most of the lesson doodling in her notebook. The school bell rung and the students packed their books away. Katie walked over to her brother Rhydian.

"Have you seen the picture?" Katie asked.

"Yeah. Maddy's friend Shannon took it this morning." Rhydian said.

"What are we going to do about it? Have you spoken to Maddy?" Katie asked.

"Not yet," Rhydian said as they walked into the art classroom and took their seats. In this class, Katie and Rhydian sat on the same table, which was next to Maddy's table. During the lesson, Maddy came over and stood by their table.

"I know that one of you took Shannon's memory card," Maddy said.

"I wasn't me," Katie said. Rhydian reached into his pocket and gave Maddy the card.

"You can thank me later," Rhydian said.

"You made Shannon look like an idiot," Maddy said.

"Tough," Rhydian answered.

"If you two weren't wolfing out in the woods, then Shannon wouldn't have a picture" Maddy whispered.

"It wasn't us," Katie said.

"Our wolf pack hasn't been seen for over 30 years, then you two show up and Shannon's got a picture," Maddy said.

"Come on. We told you it wasn't us. It could have been your parents" Rhydian said.

"They don't wolf out in public. You took that memory card to protect yourself" Maddy said.

"I took it to protect all of us," Rhydian said. "But if you want to make your friend happy then go ahead."

"Shan's not an idiot," Maddy said and she walked back to her table.

Katie walked into the canteen. After she got her food, Katie found a table in the corner and sat down. A few minutes later a boy came over.

"Hi, are you Katie Morris," the boy asked.

"Yeah. That's me" Katie said.

"I'm Robbie. I was the one who left the note in your locker. Do you mind if I sit down?" Robbie asked Robbie was very handsome, he was shorter than Rhydian and he had brown hair.

"No, I don't mind. So what did you want to talk about?" Katie asked.

"I was wondering if you wanted to hang out. You seem like a nice girl and I would like to know more about you." Robbie said.

"It really nice of you but I have to find my brother. Maybe we can hang out another time" Katie said.

"Sure. Just text me" Robbie said. Katie left the table and went to find Rhydian.

Katie found Rhydian by the lockers.

"Hi," Katie said.

"Hey, Katie. Who was that boy?" Rhydian asked.

"Oh. He's name is Robbie. He asked me if I wanted to hang out" Katie said.

"What did you say?" Rhydian asked.

"Nothing. I said that I would call him and we could arrange a date to hang out" Katie said.

"Ok. By the way, the Smiths have invited us round for dinner tomorrow" Rhydian said.

"Really. Why?" Katie asked.

"They want to talk to us about wolfing out safely," Rhydian said.

"But I have to finish my art project," Katie said.

"Can't you do that another night, bedside Maddy said that it's hog roast night," Rhydian said.

Katie smiled. "Ok, I will go"

The next day after school, Katie and Rhydian were standing outside the Smiths house. The door opened.

"Hello, you must be Katie and Rhydian. I'm Daniel" Daniel invited them in. When Katie and Rhydian walked in, Maddy smiled at them and so did Maddy's mum.

They all sat down and started to eat. It was silent for the first couple of minutes until Rhydian started to ask questions.

"On a full moon, do you change in the house?" Rhydian asked.

"What in here? No, we have a safe room in the cellar" Daniel said.

Katie and Rhydian looked at Maddy's parents with confusion.

"Come and we will show you," Emma said.

The soon found themselves in an average sized room. It didn't look like somewhere Katie would want to spend the full moon.

"We call it the den. It has everything a wolf desires" Emma said.

"Apart from freedom. I can't imagine what it is like being locked away every full moon." Katie said.

"Yeah, don't you ever just want to run free" Rhydian added.

"Well being a Wolfblood is not always about given in to our instincts. It's about being responsible. Most of us agree that it's better to tame our instincts. We are not forcing you to spend the full moon with us" Daniel said.

"What do you mean by most of us?" Katie asked.

"I meant... that..." Daniel started to say but Emma gave him a look.

"You should most us" Maddy added.

"There are some Wolfblood's that don't lock themselves way. They call themselves Wild Wolfblood's and they are dangerous" Daniel explained.

Katie remembered the picture from this morning. If that was a Wild Wolfblood then Maddy's friends were in danger.

"Do you remember that picture from this morning?" Katie asked.

"Yeah," Rhydian said. Maddy looked worried.

"Are you sure that wasn't one of you in that picture?" Maddy asked.

"We told you it wasn't us," Katie said.

"Then Shannon and Tom are out there in danger. We have to help them" Maddy said.

"What photo are you talking about," Emma asked.

"This one. I thought it was either Katie or Rhydian, but I didn't know about Wild Wolfblood then" Maddy said.

"Were did they go?"

"To the woods. I think it was near the moors" Maddy said.

"Ok, you three stay here," Emma told them.

"Were coming with you?" Maddy said.

"No, you are staying here, if there is a Wild Wolfblood out there then we will find it," Emma said and the two adult Wolfblood's left the house.

The three teenagers stood in silence for a minute.

"This is silly. I know where they are." Rhydian said.

"Come on then. If the Wolfblood is out there then it's using its senses and it could hurt Tom and Shannon" Maddy said.

They went into the woods and used their senses to track Tom and Shannon. We found Tom and Shannon with most of the form group.

"What are you guys doing here?" Shannon asked. "I thought you had dinner with your parents?"

"We did," Maddy said.

Katie could hear the sound of leaves rustling on the ground, the others heard it too and ran off, leaving only Shannon and Tom.

"It's the monster," Shannon said.

"No, that's the monster. It's behind us." Maddy said. The wolf growled

"RUN" Maddy shouted. They all started to run but Tom hurt his ankle.

"Tom," Maddy said.

Katie and Rhydian changed into their wolf form and tried to get the 'monster' to back away from them. Maddy then flashed Shannon's camera at the wolf and it disappeared. Rhydian and Katie changed back. Rhydian had a cut on his head.

"Rhydian. Your head" Katie said.

"I will be ok," Rhydian said as he hugged his sister.

"How's Tom?" Katie asked.

"He's sprained his ankle," Maddy said.

The group started to walk back to Maddy's house when her parent's car pulled up.

"Is everyone alright?" Emma asked.

"Tom hurt his ankle," Maddy said.

"Ok, let's take him back to our house," Emma said.

"What were you doing out here anyway?" Shannon asked.

"Oh. Emma likes watching the stars" Daniel said.

Katie helped Tom get in the car and then they went back to Maddy's house.

Emma cleaned Rhydian's cut and the two siblings went home.

Next time

Rhydian gets in trouble and it's up to Katie to prove that he is innocent.

3. Chapter 3

The rest of the week went by quickly. It was Friday, the day of the school art exhibition and all the students were busy setting up their display. Katie had painted a picture of her with a suitcase and then she had painted a picture of her brother Rhydian.

Rhydian had only sketched at a picture of a boy sitting alone in a dark corridor. Katie walked over to her brother and placed her arm around him.

"It's ok Rhydian," Katie said.

"No, it's not. All the people here have their own families and we have lived with ten different ones" Rhydian said. Katie noticed that Kay, Kara, and Katrina were standing behind them, looking at Rhydian's picture.

"Let's see you drawing Rhydian," Kay asked.

"Yeah, I bet it's brilliant" Katerina added. When they saw the drawing, they looked at the two siblings with confused faces.

"Whats that got to do with family. It's spooky and weird" Kara said.

Rhydian turned the picture around and drew a stick figure family with smiley faces.

"Is that normal enough for you." Rhydian asked and the "three Ks" left.

"Rhydian, don't worry about it, people don't understand what its like to be in foster care," Katie said.

When all the parents came in to look at the Art Work, Katie and Rhydian watched from the window. Katie had always wondered what her real parents had been like and what she would say if she got the chance to meet them.

The two siblings looked at each other and then they went home.

On Monday when Katie arrived at school, she noticed that the school hall was closed.

"What happened?" Katie asked. Soon there was a crowd of people including the "three Ks"

"My Mum's jacket," Katerina said as she opened the door and walked in. The rest of the students, including Katie, followed. The room was a mess, everyone's work was destroyed.

"Nobody should be in here," Mr. Jeffries said.

"What happened, sir?" Kara asked.

"Someone came back here on Friday night after the exhibition closed," Mr. Jeffries said.

"Have you checked the cameras?" someone asked.

"All we have is a glimpse of someone running away, at that speed it could have been anyone," Mr. Jeffries said.

The bell rung and everybody went to class. Katie sat with Rhydian and she noticed that most of the people in the classroom were looking at them.

"What happened on Friday night was a serious matter, This school has a zero tolerance policy towards vandalism." Mr. Jeffries said. "If people cannot respect school property then privileges will be taken away from the whole school. The end of term disco is canceled until the vandal comes forward, so if anybody knows anything then please come and tell me."

The whole class started to complain.

"Ok, that's all, if you go now," Mr. Jeffries told us.

Most of the class grabbed the bags and left, only Maddy, Jimi, the three Ks, Liam, and Katie stayed behind.

"Hey, Rhydian. Didn't you trash the darkroom on your first day here." Jimi said.

"I might have knocked some things over. Why do you care?" Rhydian asked.

"Where were you on Friday night?" Jimi asked.

"It's none of your business," Rhydian answered.

"Rhydian was with me on Friday night," Katie said.

"I wasn't asking you, I was asking Rhydian. Anyway, I saw you two looking through the window on Friday. Do you want me to tell Sir that you were there" Jimi said.

"Rhydian didn't do it, Jimi so just drop it," Katie said and she walked away.

"Katie, wait" Maddy called. "I believe you as well. We just need to find a way to prove that Rhydian didn't do it."

"How are we going to do that, when half the school thinks that it was him. Mr. Jeffries is going to want to talk to me as well, so I can back Rhydian up" Katie said.

Later on, Katie and Rhydian were sitting in ICT when Mr. Jeffries knocked on the door.

"Can I talk to Rhydian and Katie please?" Mr. Jeffries asked. The whole class watched as they got up and walked out.

"I bet he's going to get in so much trouble," Jimi said.

"Yeah, I bet he's going to be expelled," Liam said.

"No he's not because he didn't do it," Maddy said.

Mr. Jeffries Office.

Katie and Rhydian stood in front of the desk. Mr. Jeffries sat down in his chair and looked at the siblings.

"You two were seen hanging around the school grounds on Friday night," Mr. Jeffries said.

"We came to the exhibition, but then we left," Rhydian said.

"Did Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn drop you and pick you up?" Mr. Jeffries asked.

"They dropped us but we made our own way home," Katie said.

"You walked," Mr. Jeffries said.

"Don't call me a liar" Rhydian said. Rhydian was getting angry now. Katie grabbed Rhydian's hand and pulled it away from the desk as his veins were starting to turn black.

"Did you both leave at the same time?" Mr. Jeffries asked.

"Yes. We left together." Katie said. The room went silent for a few minutes and Katie could hear Maddy telling Rhydian to calm down. Katie tried to keep herself calm by closing her eyes and counting to ten.

"What happened on Friday night was a serious matter, Rhydian." Mr. Jeffries continued the conversation. "It's a criminal matter."

"I didn't do it Sir, Katie can back me up," Rhydian said.

"It's true. Rhydian and I never went into the school" Katie said. Rhydian was starting to lose control again. Maddy was still whispering to Rhydian through the door and he laughed.

"What's so funny, Rhydian?" Mr. Jeffries asked.

"Nothing," Rhydian said.

"Ok, last chance. Where were you Friday night?" Mr. Jeffries asked.

"I told you. I didn't do it" Rhydian said. Maddy was whispering something through the door.

"We both showed up at the exhibition and then we left. On our way home Maddy's parents offered us a lift back to the Vaughn's house" Rhydian said.

"Ok. I will give them a call." Mr. Jeffries said.

(Skip phone conversation)

"It seems that you were telling the truth," Mr. Jeffries said. Katie and Rhydian left the office and went to meet Maddy. Rhydian and Maddy started talking about what happened in the office.

"Thank you for backing my brother up, Maddy," Katie said.

"That's ok, Katie. How did you manage to keep calm when Mr. Jeffries accused you of lying?" Maddy asked.

"I have my ways," Katie said.

The girls smiled at each other. Katie had found a friend in Maddy.

Next time.

Katie and Robbie have their first outing.
